Other Musical Groups

Within the orchestra there are other smaller groups who often play around the Island.

These include a string quartet and wind group.
These groups have been heard at the Wightlink
"Party on the Pier", but are also available for booking for such activities as weddings or parties.

All monies raised by these groups is put back into the Orchestra's funds.

If anyone is interested in booking any of these groups, please use the contact details below.

WIGHTLINK
PART OF ISLAND LIFE

Welcome

Welcome to the Isle of Wight Symphony Orchestra's 2014-15 season.

Formed in 1977, the Orchestra has become an important part of Island life and culture, like its major sponsor Wightlink.

Most concerts are held at Medina Theatre in Newport, but the Orchestra has also performed at other Island venues and in Portsmouth. The Orchestra has also been broadcast on Classic FM.

Under the guidance of its Musical Director Jonathan Butcher, the Orchestra always strives for excellence. Both Jonathan and the orchestra are looking forward to an exciting season of music, which they hope will entertain and stimulate their audiences.

The Orchestra always welcomes new members. Anyone who is interested in joining should use the contact details in this brochure for more details.
